ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant David L. Musk (Musk) (Filing No. 20). Musk seeks a continuance of the trial of this matter which is scheduled for May 2, 2011. Musk seeks the additional time to allow his forensic accountant to complete his review of documents and prepare a report. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Musk's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 20) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for September 12, 2011, before Chief Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between April 25, 2011, and September 12, 2011, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 25th day of April, 2011.

BY THE COURT:

s/Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
